"Armstrong House"
700 E. Collins Ave.,
Glendale, Mo.

This house was built about 128 years ago. The original structure was a log cabin built by Lane Yeatts in 1808.

In the year 1835, Clinton Armstrong came from Tennessee and purchased the house and 38 acres of land. When he purchased the house he added one wing to the rear and a balcony on the front.

He was one of the early settlers in St. Louis County.

Luther Armstrong, son of Clinton was an Adjutant in the Civil War.

Clinton Armstrong was the publisher of a religious paper in Tenn. called the "Calvanistic".

The property is still in the possession of the Armstrong family.

In later years the old log house was covered, giving it the appearance of a frame house.

Information: Miss Julia O.
Armstrong.
